*Please Note: Volleyball requires parental involvement (line judging, scoreboard running and scorekeeping). It is expected that parents participate in these roles at multiple matches per season. In order to coach, all Coaches and Assistant Coaches are required to be an approved VIRTUS volunteer through the Archdiocese (please visit the church office for information).

I, the parent/guardian of the above-named child, hereby give my approval for her to participate in any and all CMVL activities, including transportation to and from the activities. I state that my child is in proper physical condition and I understand that being involved in an athletic program can be a potentially hazardous activity. I assume all risks to my child while playing in the St. John Neumann/CMVL Volleyball program including but not limited to falls, contact with other players, injuries on the court, all such risks being known and appreciated by me. After reading and understanding this waiver, I waive and release St. John Neumann Catholic Church, the CMVL Volleyball program, their representatives and successors from claims and liabilities of any kind arising out of my child's participation in this program.

I am giving my permission to use photographs of my child at practice or in games in promotional materials for SJNRCS and Parish.

Emergency Medical Treatment: In the event of an emergency, I hereby give permission to transport my child to a hospital for emergency medical attention. I wish to be advised prior to any further treatment by the doctor and hospital. If you are unable to reach parent/guardian or emergency contact person, I hereby grant permission for the doctor and hospital to exercise professional judgment in treating participant

Players' Code of Conduct

I hereby pledge to be positive about my youth sports experience have fun, and accept responsibility for my participation by following this Players' Code of Ethics Pledge.

- Be a good sport (win or lose); be honest, fair and always show good sportsmanship to all coaches, players, officials, parents and fans by demonstrating good sportsmanship at every game and practice.
- Learn the value of commitment to the team. I will attend every practice and game that I can, and will notify by coach if I cannot.
- Put personal goals aside for the betterment of the team.
- Show courtesy and respect to teammates, opponents and coaches.
- Realize that athletic contests, including practice sessions are educational experiences and opportunities.
- I will not engage in unsportsmanlike conduct or engage in rude behavior.
- I will treat everyone, including coaches, parents, players and officials, with respect.

I, _____ (print name), have read and understood all of the above points of this contract. I understand that failure to uphold these responsibilities may result in a review of my status and possible dismissal from the Athletic Program.

Parent Code of Conduct

As a parent, you play a special role in contributing to the needs and development of youngsters. Through your encouragement and good example, you can help assure that all the boys and girls learn good sportsmanship and self-discipline. In CMVL, young people learn to work together, to sacrifice for the good of the team, to enjoy winning and deal appropriately with defeat – all while becoming physically fit and healthy. Best of all, they have fun.

Support your child - Supporting your child by giving encouragement and showing interest in their team is very important. Help your child work toward skill improvement and good sportsmanship in every game. Teach your child that hard work and an honest effort are often more important than victory – that way your child will always be a winner despite the outcome of the game!

Always be positive - Parents serve as role models for their children. Become aware of this and work to be a positive role model. Applaud good plays by your child's team as well as good plays by the opposing team. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from youth sports activities.

Remember that your child wants to have fun - Remember that your child is the one playing volleyball, not you. It's very important to let children establish their own goals – to play the game for themselves. Take care not to impose your own standards and goals on them. Don't put too heavy a burden on your child to win games. Children play for the fun of playing.

Reinforce Positive behavior - Positive reinforcement is the best way to help your child achieve their goals and their natural fear of failure. Nobody likes to make mistakes. If your child does make one, remember it's all part of learning, so encourage your child's efforts and point out the good things your child accomplished.

Don't be a sideline coach or referee - Coaches and referees are parents just like you. They volunteer time to help make your child's youth volleyball experiences a positive one. This means refraining from coaching or refereeing from the sidelines. As a volunteer organization, there's usually always an opportunity for you to take your interest in coaching or refereeing to the next level and become one yourself.

- Parents Pledge: shall set an example for sportsmanship for my child to follow. I shall emphasize team play to my child. I shall show by example respect for referees, opposing teams and other fans. I shall not be a grandstand coach. I shall remember that not everyone can play at one time. I shall not be critical unless I'm willing to work to correct the problem. I shall attend my child's games because, it is important to them, they are not young forever. I shall be supportive when my child is successful or when struggling for success. I shall play and practice the skills of the game with my child. I shall be positive and supportive whether the team wins or loses. I shall remember that all coaches and league officers are volunteers. I shall volunteer whenever possible. I shall retain perspective that there are no college scouts in the stands. I shall remember that the game is for the kids.

I, _____ (print name), parent / guardian of _____,
Have read and understood the terms of the Code of Conduct for Parents and Student Athletes. I understand that I too, am responsible and will be held accountable for my child's actions during his/her participation in athletics and it's events. I hereby authorize my child to enter into this contract.
